MAY CLOSE SCHOOL

Board Objects to Condition of Minor Building.

QUICK REPAIRS ARE ORDERED

Owners Instructed to Comply with Demands of Fire Department at Once-Fires Ordered Extinguished in the M Street High School-Pupils Will Hear Lessons on First Floor.

The building committee of the board of reference to the unsafe conditions of Minor and M street High Schools.

It was found that the Minor Building was owned by private interests and that every suit is worth a good five dol- the District government had no authority o improve the building, but the commit ee notified the owners that if the building is not put in a safe condition immediately, the building will be vacated. Much old furniture was found in the several rooms and this was gathered together and piled in the yard. The Comnissioners were notified and requested to have it removed.

The fires in M street High School were ordered extinguished and the Commission ers asked to make the necessary repairs. In the meantime, the pupils will hear their lessons on the first floor, as is being done in Potomac and McCormick schools. In this manner, Capt. Oyster says, the school authorities will be able to continue the full school term.

Board Feels Vindicated.

Capt, Oyster said the board feels vindicated in its position, now that the fire cated in its position, now that the are not light the health officer, and the sanitary NOT IDENTIFIED AS HYDE officer are one by one upholding the con tentions the board has made all along

"These conditions are not new to us, and we have asked for money to remedy them. I think the press and the public thoroughly understand the conditions and are giving us all the aid possible. We are mapped out and use every effort to better the conditions in the buildings, whether it is pleasing to some or not. We are going to make conditions safe for the children in our public schools if it is pos sible. If the Senate will give us the $262,000 recommended by the committee, and we can use the additional $90,000 from he building fund, the schools can be put n reasonably safe condition by fall, if the Commissioners accede to our request and oly in a short time."
